2011 Negotiations

1625. A temporary layoff is defined as a layoff of not more than thirty (30) working days. In the event of a temporary layoff, the Company shall have the right to layoff employees as their work is completed, irrespective of their seniority; provided however, that no other employee will be used on the jobs of employees who are laid off.

1626. Upon resumption of work, employees will be recalled in seniority order as their jobs open up.

The parties have tentatively agreed to the above modification to the 2008 - 2011 labor agreement.
